

To your comfort level, as much as is tolerable, cover up any identifying tattoos or marking that could be used to dox you. I highly recommend bringing a bandana for covering your face from cameras.

Try Your Best To Stay Anonymous

Follow the lead of the activists and organizers running the protest.

i
EMERGENCY CONTACT:
BAIL CONTACT:
MEETUP SPOTS:
HAVE A NON-DIGITAL WAY TO KEEP TRACK OF IMPORTANT INFO. USE THIS ZINE TO DOCUMENT THIS INFO AND KEEP IN YOUR WALLET. DON'T DEPEND ON HAVING ACCESS TO A PHONE.

Keep Track of Important Info

Within your packing things, keep snacks and first aid handy.

I make sure to include the following:

Resist the urge to turn a protest into a photo op.

Be sure you keep your intentions in mind, remember why you're there. This also helps avoid outing folks to social media.

power in your pocket

a pocket protest guide

by lavazine.press

pack a change of clothes in the case that the police use teargas.

While trying to pack as lightly as possible,

If you plan to get arrested, have at least one contact and plan for making bail.

Have a Plan

If you go with a group, have a communications and separation plan.